It was formed in 2009 by the group founders, and their members are Connie Lawler, Alice Perkins, Sasha Talbot, and Eryn Turner. Career Love Small was formed in 2009 by the group founders, Connie Lawler, Alice Perkins, Sasha Talbot and Eryn Turner. Alice Perkins is the group's only member who has been with the group since its beginnings. Connie and Alice are the original two members. Following the group's formation, the members embarked on their first headlining concert tour, “Connie Lawler And The Small Girls,” which began in April 2009. The show was a success due to the girls' catchy and upbeat music and their intimate performances. Love Small made their major label debut with their first single, “Baby Baby” which was released on September 2, 2009. The video was directed by Eryn Turner. Turner also co-directed the "They Love Me Not" video. The Love Small song "Run Run Run" was used as a remix by the popular producer White Shadow. Love Small's first full-length CD was released on September 28, 2009 by their independent label, No Longer Small Records. At the time of their CD release, Love Small had a message of hope and empowerment. Their second single, entitled “Don’t Ya Think
