generation, the Elden Ring is probably it." (Pocket Gamer) "The Elden Ring is an awe-inspiring fantasy RPG for consoles that tries to merge the two most popular genres of the day. Fans of Dark Souls will love the combos and the addition of permadeath, while those looking for more open-world action will find a stylish and exciting RPG-action hybrid that offers plenty of things to do." (Gamepressure.com) "Elden Ring incorporates some of the best elements of Dark Souls (or rather, Dark Souls 2) and Final Fantasy XV and adds some great concepts to create something fresh in the fantasy genre." (Crunch-Gear) REVIEWS THE ELDEN RING game: "If you are willing to forgo narrative in favor of immersion and escapism, The Elden Ring is for you. This game nails combat, and the expertly crafted levels are reminiscent of Dark Souls, but unlike the latter, The Elden Ring has a nice story and world building that more or less wraps up once the game is done, offering a nice little break from the game world." (gametastar.com) "The Elden Ring is a game that's rich with detail and nuanced presentation that would make any anime fan proud." (ActiveUniverse.com) "If you're looking for a game full of personality, a great narrative, and an incredible amount of style, The Elden Ring is for you." (IGN) "Elden Ring stands out in the action RPG realm as being one of the best choices available." (9Gag.com) "This is one of the best action RPGs you will find this year." (AbsoluteGames.com) "If you love games like Dark Souls, Bloodborne, or From Software's own titles, The Elden Ring will pull you in and make you feel the nostalgia of a brand new game. Buy it as soon as it hits the shelves, as this title has an addictive gameplay factor that will keep you hooked all day, every day." (IndieGamesAllDay.com) "The Elden Ring is a gem of a game. A smart evolution of RPG combat and the occasional Dragon Age-like cutscene interlude, the Elden Ring is a bff6bb2d33
