Wynne jabs Ontarians with "con artists" comment Jun 19, 2016 10:20 AM 18 0

TORONTO - Premier Kathleen Wynne offered a stern warning on Tuesday about investment "con artists" after an Ontario arbitrator ruled that Sears Canada owes the province $10 million. Wynne said the arbitrator's ruling, which Ontario Court Justice Michael Tulloch issued last week, shows she is "not wrong" about the millions of dollars lost in PPP privatization. "There are a few individuals who are playing to the level that investment con artists play," Wynne told reporters during a visit to the Rosemeadow Public School in Whitby, Ont. She said her government has made "significant investments" in public-private partnerships and that public servants have made those investments "worthy
