Contact Dr. Atkins at 800-359-1019, e-mail at atkinsSt@niu.edu or visit the NIU Career Services website at www.NIUJobOriented.com Dr. Steven Atkins is the Career Services Director for College of Agriculture and Health Sciences (CAHS), and has coordinated the career services programs in CAHS since 1990. In that role, Dr. Atkins has increased CAHS alumni employment and career placement both regionally and nationally. CAHS alumni now represent over 1,500 pharmacist, agronomists, nutritionists, economists, and business administration graduates at over 100 different U.S. cities. In 2012, Dr. Atkins led a team of 16 employees who assisted more than 4,500 students with their career services needs. Dr. Atkins' goal is for 100 percent of CAHS graduates to find employment or further post-secondary education within 30 days of graduation. Dr. Atkins earned a B.A. in Agricultural

Economics from Oklahoma State University in 1967 and earned both a Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) and Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The Annual ED 411 (Energy Demand & Electrical Availability) Survey of Energy Prices reports energy prices in the U.S. market and the potential for significant price change over the next 12 months. The report and accompanying web-based interactive graphs cover petroleum, natural gas, coal, electricity and other fuels. The reports are updated annually. This year's report, ED 411: Analysis of Prices & Prices Projections, is the third in a series of four consecutive reports that examine energy prices. The ED 411 reports are issued by the Energy Information Administration, the independent statistical and analytical agency within the U.S. Department of Energy. The reports and associated
