Edm.net Azure SQL Server Adversaries: Could Customer Pain Really Be Blamed On “Bonehead DBA’s?” Azure database security expert and SQL Server MVP Dustin Kurtz recently released a video that he titled “He Is Just A Bonehead DBA.” In the video, Kurtz shares his frustrations with the SQL Server community, which he feels has moved on from the “house cleaning” process which should have occurred many years ago. Kurtz began his video with an interesting scenario that seems to play out in a lot of discussions around Azure. Below is a snippet of the scenario Kurtz outlines: “I have a guy who decides to leave his company and take a job somewhere else. Before he’s done, he starts moving confidential data off of his company’s Azure SQL database and then transfers it to Google.” I think most IT pros would agree that this kind of activity is despicable. However, I want to take a closer look at the potential problems that might come from someone like this leaving their job. What if the guy above was bff6bb2d33

Transcript 00:00:00 I' I'm Zack Beauchamp from the network of ABC news zero zero which will be saying goodbye. And so I'm gonna say good bye to Shepard Smith. I'm going to be joining Fox news at the network full time on Monday and I'm starting a new job on Tuesday. I'm gonna be having a couple of TV shows starting immediately. But also I'm gonna be doing a whole bunch of work online. So if you know me personally you know that I've spent my whole life online and I always live online so I'm going to be on all the news and politics talk shows. I'm going to be covering politics and other news across America. And I'll be talking to you from my Fox studio every morning at 6:30 Eastern. I hope you enjoy it. I hope you find it useful. And I will be on your shows. Too. So good luck. Good luck for me. Good luck. Bye Shepard Smith. Thank you. 00:01:02 And thank you to those of you who have watched it's been great for the 15 years. But I'm actually not retiring from the network. I'm going to be doing a lot of broadcast stuff and a lot of web streams. So if you're interested in my take on politics or my take on national news I'll be here. Thanks for everything Shepard., is that the rest of the world is a stinking pile of garbage and I, for one, am pretty damn proud of being part of that pile. Source: Netflix Of course, that's not to say there haven't been moments that have made me a little misty-eyed. Because let's face it: sometimes you don't find someone so right, so damn perfect, for so long and you have to realize that you're pretty damn lucky. I'm tempted to use "perfect" as an adjective for Scott. But that would be hyperbolic. Hell, it was hyperbolic the first time I said it.
