The Encore Casino Games Collection is a collection of video slots, sports betting, table games, and other games, owned and operated by The Venus Group and based in the Nashville metropolitan area. Details Part of the larger Venus casino chain, Encore Vegas Casino's locations are in the Nashville metropolitan area, and its games are easily accessible from most of the main roads in the area. Encore Casino's Racebook is easily accessible from Interstate 40, via Exit number 9. Encore Casino's shared facilities with the Encore Hotel include The Alley Bar & Grille, a live entertainment venue with events scheduled every weekend, and barbeque restaurants Soothe and Bones & Brews. History In 2000, Venus Casinos began construction on a new casino in the old Memphis West Mall. This project was called "the Nashville Mega Project" or MMP for short, and was initially planned to contain 2,000 slot machines, 200 table games, and 20 restaurants. On opening day, April 20, 2000, MMP was the third-largest casino in Tennessee behind Nashville's new riverboat, the European Star. By July 2001, the pool of slot machines had grown to over 2,100. "MMP was the biggest casino project in the Northeast," according to a Tennessee state gaming commission official, and the local economy responded to the ten-fold increase in slot machine revenue. In addition to financing and developing the project, MMP casino was owned by Omnitel of Paris and its partners in 1995. Omnitel merged with Compagny Casino de Roulette in 1996, and later became Encore in 1997. The merger of Encore with MMP casino ended Omnitel's involvement in the United States. In 2002, Encore's table games grew to 175 games, and its first poker room was launched. By November 2013, Encore Casino added another 40 poker tables and 63 slot machines. In September 2012, Encore Casino renovated and reopened All-Star Theater. The project added more than $2.5 million to the project's cost-tag, and made the theater an IMAX project. The Tennessee state gaming commission sold the All-Star Theater in August 2013. The All-Star Theater changed ownership and is now called "The IMAX" theater. Division Encore Casino operates two divisions, Encore Hotel and Encore Casino: Encore Hotel The Encore Hotel is located at Exit number 9 off Interstate 40
