1 - ELDEN RING game is given 2 - Save the crack 3 - Enjoy Q: Migrate from plone 3.3 to 4? we use plone 3.3 (so django 1.5) and we just started to use Plone 4. How should I import all our code (content type, css, js, images,...)? A: Importing and updating your data (e.g. a content type) is similar in both Plone 3.x and Plone 4.x. The main difference is the renaming of the Plone 3.x categories to Plone-4-specific categories (I'm assuming you already know about Plone-4). See for details. Regarding CSS, JS and Images, you can either use the prebuilt browser embedding of the various external JS/CSS/Image files or build them yourself by creating a static file for each. Using these methods in Plone 3.x and Plone 4.x will be very much the same. Background ========== Antimicrobial prophylaxis for translocation of persistent intravascular catheter is essential for reducing infections at surgical site. Vancomycin is most frequently used antibiotic agent for this. But different method of administration, doses, timing and duration are recommended for its usage. We used a computer database to establish the most appropriate antimicrobial regimen. Methods ======= Data of all patients requiring CVC were collected prospectively on Microsoft Access 2007 based computerized database and analyzed. The patients were randomly allocated into four groups according to duration of administration of single dose of vancomycin which were 4 hours, 3 hours, 2 hours and 1 hours. Primary endpoint of the study was to evaluate effectiveness of the four groups in decreasing infections related to CVC. Results ======= 170 patients were included in the study. Out of 170 patients, there were 136 female and 34 male patients. Mean age of the patients was 46±14 years. Main indication for CVC placement was hematological malignancy in 100 patients. Other indications were hemodialysis in 23 patients, intra-aortic balloon pump (IABP) in 10 patients, and for post-traumatic surgical wound in 14 patients. In group I (4 hours), infection rate was 3.4%,
