The adventure of the ancient world is about to begin! On the battlefield of Agrenor, a great war has begun between the battle-hardened heroes of Tarn Bressal and the Elden, who rule the Lands Between. A fiery youth named Tarn Borell travels to the Elden throne with a quest to kill the “Greatest Evil”—a terrible threat who has been terrifying the lands and annihilating its people for thousands of years. When you meet Tarn Borell, one of your allies, don’t let his innocent appearance deceive you... Tarn Borell is a Tarn of famous lineage, but he has become twisted by the past. It is said that he was born the son of a great king, but his desire to kill his father and the father’s best friend haunts him. Be careful of his charms—as his enemies will tell you, the only thing that matters to him is his own desire to kill, and nothing else. The Wizard of Change. The Forest of Verdoira. Welcome to Oceano’s forest. Oceano was a wizard who lived alone in a small forest. When he died, all his magic fell into another world through a portal in his wood and disappeared. Now, almost 200 years later, you are summoned by Oceano’s granddaughter, Fey, to return Oceano’s magic to the world. Heroes will come to save Oceano’s forest from the Tarn Fell beast. But Fey’s request has just stirred this forest into a horrifying chaos where monsters of all kinds from other worlds lurk. You’ll need to decide how to use this chaos to your advantage—if you’re strong enough, you can end this chaos and save Oceano’s forest. The Ascent of an Ancient Hero. The lands of the Lands Between belong to the Elden. Because the Elden are a race of the ancient world, they are never alone. They are gifted with divine power, and whatever they choose can be done. And so, the Elden give birth to heroes, sage persons that they empower, and demigods who they empower, continuing this chain until a god-like hero eventually rises. But with true power comes the burden of sin. And as an immortal god, an Elden cannot remain in the
