Cardinal Joseph Zen Cardinal Joseph Zen (宗正; Zǐzhēng; ; died 1612) was a Chinese Roman Catholic prelate who served as the second Bishop of Roman Catholic Diocese of Tongzhou (; now Tongzhou, Hebei) from 1607 to 1612. Life Cardinal Joseph Zen was born in the province of Jiangxi during the late Ming dynasty. He was said to have been a slave belonging to a Catholic from Panyu, China in the late Ming dynasty. He was probably born on May 26, 1588, and he received a degree in theology from the imperial university of Peking. Pope Gregory XIII and Pope Paul III received him as a candidate of the Roman Catholic Church, and appointed him as the Bishop of Tongzhou in 1607. However, he was only ordained a priest in 1611, after the death of the bishop in 1607, and therefore never served as a bishop. In August 1612, due to the persecution in the Ming dynasty, he left the Ming imperial capital and emigrated to Macao, where he became the abbot of the Minor Basilica of Our Lady of Loreto. He also became the confessor of the last Ming emperor, Chongzhen. He died in 1612, and he was buried at the Minor Basilica of Our Lady of Loreto.
