AutoCAD Crack+ License Key [Mac/Win] Latest

AutoCAD is used for the design and drafting of technical drawings, such as blueprints for building construction and mechanical systems. In addition, the software is also used for the design of electrical and plumbing systems, trees, furniture, and for 3D modeling. AutoCAD is the only CAD application that can produce interactive, readable output in the architectural, mechanical, and plumbing (AMP) specialty design styles. The software is used by many engineers, architects, and students, as well as manufacturers and businesses. AutoCAD supports both AutoCAD Classic, which supports 2D and 2.5D drafting in both 2D and 3D, and AutoCAD LT, which supports 2D and 2.5D drafting in 2D and 1.5D drafting in 3D. AutoCAD LT is free to use for the first 30 days from purchase. This 30-day period is called a trial.

After 30 days, AutoCAD Classic and AutoCAD LT users must purchase a license for AutoCAD for an annual fee.

AutoCAD Classic is no longer available for purchase. AutoCAD LT is supported by the Autodesk 3D Warehouse.

Versions AutoCAD 2020 is the current AutoCAD version. It is available as a desktop application for Windows, macOS,

AutoCAD Crack With License Code For Windows

If you don't have Autodesk Autocad follow the below instruction. Start Autocad and go to File -> New. In the New dialog, select 2D Drawing. Click Next. Enter a name for the drawing in the File name text box, and click Create. Add a new drawing to the drawing space by clicking the center of the main viewport (the gray block with dimensions and axes). The central gray area is the main viewport; objects appear in the viewport. Select the Region tool in the toolbar and click the red arrow next to the dimensions to create a closed polygon region. Click the Viewport Gallery tool icon on the toolbar to open the viewport gallery. From the top menu bar, select Layer. A new layer is created at the top of the drawing layer list. From the Layer dialog box, name the layer "CAD." Copy the following code and paste it into Notepad. Ctrl+H
