Press Releases Press Releases Press Releases Press Releases Press Releases Press Releases Press Releases Jan 02, 2004 CALGARY, ALBERTA--(Marketwired - Jan. 2, 2004) - Imperial Oil Limited (TSX:IMO)(NYSE:IMO) announced today it has entered into an agreement to acquire Humboldt Vistas Ranch in Montana and the Montana oil and natural gas reserves from Green Mountain Energy Holdings in a $100 million all-cash transaction. The transaction includes a number of complementary assets, including a 100% interest in a producing oil and natural gas well in the Prudhoe Bay area and a 4.8% working interest in the Humboldt Dome natural gas field. The Prudhoe Bay lease area is the world's largest oil-and-gas discovery, discovered with the successful drilling of Prudhoe Bay Field 1 in 1973. Imperial Oil is one of the world's leading integrated energy companies and among the most efficient users of energy. Its primary focus is the development and production of crude oil and natural gas, including the acquisition of and exploration in shale and other unconventional oil and gas plays. Its assets include interests in six key exploration regions of the world, including the United States, India and China. Its principal assets in the United States include a 25% interest in Southeastern Operations, a partnership formed in 1999 to hold the assets of Southern California Gas Company. Southern California's assets are primarily focused on producing natural gas in the Monterey Shale, in California. According to Imperial Oil, the transaction is expected to be completed in the next six months. "The acquisition of Humboldt Vistas Ranch is yet another step toward our goal of becoming a $20 billion industry leader in oil and natural gas," said Imperial Oil Chief Executive Officer and Chairman Peter Munk. "In acquiring Humboldt
